The Historical Lighting Society of Canada is offering a great deal for new or renewing members. Sign up for two years and get a free set of the three Historical Lighting Reprints published by HLSC member David Broughton (Sirlampsalot Publications). The original retail selling price was $110 (US).

HLSC members receive four hardcopy newsletters per year, all electronic newsletters and a copy of our Font and Flame journal. You can attend meetings (and participate as a buyer and seller in the silent auction), post a free ad in the newsletter, ask questions and share knowledge with other enthusiastic lighting collectors and researchers.

The cost of membership is $35 year (Canadian $ for Canadian residents, US $ for US residents). Please enquire for other countries.

The deal –

Includes a free copy of each volume. Shipping is extra if you cannot pickup your books at a meeting or from an executive member in southern Ontario or northern PA. Shipping is $15 (US) in the US and $16 (Can) in Canada.

Vol. 1 - The 1883 Bradley and Hubbard Catalog - With 248 pages showing almost 600 oil lamps.
Vol. 2 - Five Early Victorian Kerosene Lighting Catalogs - A collection of five rare kerosene lighting catalogs from the 1860's to the early 1880's. With 220 pages, 60 in full color, and illustrating about 420 lamps and parts.
Vol. 3 - Four Victorian Kerosene Lighting Catalogs – 224 pages showing four original, never before reprinted, catalogs from two important manufacturers and two large American retailers have been combined into a single reference.

More details about the books at www.sirlampsalot.com.

Signup now and get your HLSC membership for 2018 and 2019. Such a deal!
Quantities are limited – join now!